method of authenticating and preserving the integrity of the Statutes and Session Laws or other legal material that are available in an electronic record format via the Internet.

VII. PRINTING REQUIREMENTS

A. Time of the Essence. It is the essence of this Contract that all requirements be performed in a timely and professional manner. Accordingly, LexisNexis shall use its best efforts to comply with the deadlines established in this section VII, and failure to meet such deadlines subjects LexisNexis to the provisions of sections XIV and XV. Any period of performance required under this Contract may be extended only upon written approval of the Committee. At the earliest possible date, LexisNexis shall file a written request for an extension of time, setting forth the number of additional days requested and the reason for the request. The Committee may extend the period of performance for delay caused by reasons that, in the sole opinion of the Committee, warrant an extension of time. The Committee shall extend the period of performance in the following instances:

1. Delay caused by federal laws or regulations;

2. Delay caused by labor disputes amounting to cessation of operation of printing;

3. Delay caused by acts of God;

The files for the Statutes use SGML computer coding or any similar publication software chosen by the Office; the files for the Session Laws and Red Book use WordPerfect X4 (14) and PDF format or any similar word processing software chosen by the Office. LexisNexis shall maintain software that can read the coding and produce pages (some of which will include multiple columns, tables, or PDF files), pagination, and running heads. The Office shall proof and review the proof print, and LexisNexis shall make any corrections made by the Office.

D. Deadlines.

1. Forty-five days prior to the end of each regular session of the General Assembly, or as soon as practicable thereafter, the Office shall confer with LexisNexis regarding the number of volumes per set that the Parties estimate will be required for publication of the Statutes and Session Laws.

necessary final approval to print. LexisNexis shall prepare proof prints, transmit them to the Office, make any necessary corrections, and perform the printing and binding within the specified times.

3. LexisNexis shall make the public access on-line version of the Statutes available to the public not more than 30 days after approval and release of the final C.R.S. title by the Office, or such other timing as mutually agreed upon by the Office and LexisNexis.

4. LexisNexis shall prepare subsequent updates of the CD-ROMs or DVDs in January and May, or as otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Office and LexisNexis.

E. Paper Specification. To publish the Statutes, Session Laws, and Red Book, LexisNexis shall use paper that is acid-free, alkaline-based, permanent type paper that conforms to the American national standards for permanent paper for printed library materials (ANSI Z3948) unless otherwise directed by the state or as otherwise specified in section 2-5-105.5, C.R.S.

F. On-site Personnel. During each year of the Contract, and in particular during the months of April through June, LexisNexis shall have management personnel on-site at the State Capitol building if requested to respond to questions and address any difficulties in meeting the conditions of the Contract.

G. Authority to subcontract. The State herein authorizes LexisNexis to subcontract the printing, binding, and distribution requirements of this Contract to Cadmus Communications or such other responsible party as mutually agreed to by the Parties. The Committee may delay or deny payment if it rejects the publications for any reason as specified in section V.D. Failure of the Committee to give written notice of acceptance or rejection within thirty calendar days after delivery to the Office of such set constitutes acceptance of the set.

B. Subject to Appropriation - Available Funds - Termination. All payments to be made by the State pursuant to this Contract are specifically made dependent upon prior appropriation and availability of funds. If sufficient funds are either not appropriated or are otherwise unavailable, the State shall notify LexisNexis in writing as to whether both Parties' obligations are cancelled or postponed as to the publication covered by the failure. The Committee shall not submit any work to LexisNexis unless a prior appropriation has been made therefor. The State is prohibited by law from making commitments beyond the term of the State's current fiscal year. Therefore, Contractor's compensation beyond the State's current fiscal year is contingent upon the continuing availability of State appropriations as provided in section XVIII (Colorado Special Provisions). Payments pursuant to this Contract shall be made only from available funds encumbered for this Contract and the State's liability for such payments is limited to the amount remaining of such encumbered funds. If State funds are not appropriated, or otherwise become unavailable to fund this Contract, the State may terminate this Contract immediately, in whole or in part, without further liability in accordance with the provisions hereof.

C. Erroneous Payments. At the State's sole discretion, payments made to LexisNexis in error for any reason, including overpayments or improper payments, and unexpended or excess funds received by LexisNexis, may be recovered from LexisNexis by deduction from subsequent payments under this Contract or other contracts or agreements between the State and LexisNexis or by other appropriate methods and collected as a debt due to the State. Such funds shall not be paid to any person or entity other than the State.

part of the public domain. Pursuant to section 2-5-115, C.R.S., the Committee maintains the authority to copyright for and in behalf of the State the original and editorial work ancillary

2-5-118, C.R.S.

C. Printing and Distribution Rights. The printing and distribution rights granted pursuant to this Contract are personal to LexisNexis and shall not be transferred, assigned, or succeeded to in whole or in part without the written consent of the Committee, except that by the Office, is the sole property of the State as owner and publisher thereof and all exclusive rights granted by 17 U.S.C. § 106 are held by the State. The State hereby grants LexisNexis the right to register a copyright of its derivative works based upon the Digest of Bills and such derivative works are the sole property of LexisNexis as owner and publisher.

thereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as owner of such derivative works, LexisNexis is entitled to distribute such derivative works in any and all media whether now existing or later developed.

Additionally, all employees, agents, and subcontractors of LexisNexis performing services under this Contract shall hold all required licenses or certifications, if any, to perform their responsibilities. LexisNexis, if a foreign corporation or other foreign entity transacting business in the State of Colorado, further warrants that it currently has obtained and shall maintain any applicable certificate of authority to transact business in the State of Colorado and has designated a registered agent in Colorado to accept service of process. Any revocation, withdrawal, or non-renewal of licenses, certifications, approvals, insurance, permits, or any such similar requirements necessary for LexisNexis to properly perform the terms of this Contract is a material breach by LexisNexis and constitutes grounds for termination of this Contract.

coverage required hereunder must be issued by insurance companies that are satisfactory to LexisNexis and the State.

A. Contractor. Because LexisNexis is not a "public entity" within the meaning of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., LexisNexis shall obtain and maintain during the term of this Contract, insurance coverage and policies meeting the same requirements set forth in subsection B. of this section with respect to subcontractors that are also not "public entities".

B. Contractors - Subcontractors. LexisNexis shall require each contract with subcontractors other than those that are public entities, providing goods or services in connection with this Contract, to include insurance requirements substantially similar to the following:

1. Worker's compensation insurance as required by State statute, and employer's liability insurance covering all of LexisNexis's or its subcontractor's employees acting within the course and scope of their employment.

2. Commercial general liability insurance written in "ISO" occurrence form CG 00-01 10/93 or its equivalent, covering premises operations, fire damage, independent contractors, products and completed operations, blanket contractual liability, personal injury, and advertising liability with minimum limits as follows:

   a. $1,000,000 each occurrence;

   b. $1,000,000 general aggregate;

   c. $1,000,000 products and completed operations aggregate; and

   d. $50,000 on any fire.

   If any aggregate limit is reduced below $1,000,000 because of claims made or paid, the subcontractor shall immediately obtain additional insurance to restore the full aggregate limit and furnish to LexisNexis a certificate or other document satisfactory to LexisNexis showing compliance with this provision.

3. Automobile liability insurance covering any automobile (including owned, hired, and non-owned automobiles) with a minimum limit of $1,000,000 each accident combined single limit.
4. The State shall be named as additional insured on all commercial general liability and automobile liability insurance policies required of LexisNexis and any subcontractors hereunder.

5. Coverage required of LexisNexis and any subcontractors shall be primary over any insurance or self-insurance program carried by LexisNexis or the State.

6. The above insurance policies must include provisions preventing cancellation or non-renewal without at least 30 days' prior written notice to LexisNexis and LexisNexis shall forward such notice to the State in accordance with section XVI of this Contract (Notices and Representatives) within seven days after LexisNexis's receipt of the notice.

7. All insurance policies in any way related to this Contract and secured and maintained by LexisNexis or its subcontractor as required herein shall include clauses stating that each carrier shall waive all rights of recovery, under subrogation or otherwise, against LexisNexis or the State, its agencies, institutions, organizations, officers, agents, employees, and volunteers.

C. Certificates. LexisNexis and all subcontractors shall provide certificates showing insurance coverage required hereunder to the State within seven business days after the Effective Date of this Contract. No later than fifteen days prior to the expiration date of any such coverage, LexisNexis and each subcontractor shall deliver to the State or LexisNexis certificates of insurance evidencing renewals thereof. In addition, upon request by the State at any other time during the term of this Contract or any subcontract, LexisNexis and each subcontractor shall, within ten days after such request, supply to the State evidence satisfactory to the State of compliance with the provisions of this section XII.

XIII. BREACH

A. Defined. In addition to any breaches specified in other sections of this Contract, the failure of either Party to perform any of its material obligations hereunder, in whole or in part or in a timely or satisfactory manner, constitutes a breach. The institution of proceedings under any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or similar law, by or against LexisNexis, or the appointment of a receiver or similar officer for LexisNexis or any of its property, that is not vacated or fully stayed within twenty days after the institution or occurrence thereof, also constitutes a breach.

B. Notice and Cure Period. In the event of a breach, the aggrieved Party shall give notice in writing to the other Party in the manner provided in section XVI (Notices and Representatives). If the breach is not cured within thirty days after receipt of written notice, or if a cure cannot be completed within thirty days after receipt of the written notice, or if cure of the breach has not begun within thirty days after receipt of the written notice and pursued with due diligence, the State may exercise any of the remedies set forth in section XIV. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the State, in its sole discretion, need not provide advance notice or a cure period and may immediately terminate this Contract in whole or in part if reasonably necessary to preserve public safety or to prevent immediate public crisis.

XIV. REMEDIES.

If LexisNexis is in breach under any provision of this Contract, the State has all of the remedies listed in this section XIV in addition to all other remedies set forth in other sections of this Contract following the notice and cure period set forth in section XIII. B. The State may exercise any or all of the remedies available to it, in its sole discretion, concurrently or consecutively.

A. Termination for Cause or Breach. The State may terminate this entire Contract or any part of this Contract. Exercise by the State of this right is not a breach of its obligations hereunder. Contractor shall continue performance of this Contract to the extent not terminated, if any.

1. To the extent specified in any termination notice, LexisNexis shall not incur further obligations or render further performance hereunder past the effective date of such notice, and shall terminate outstanding orders and subcontracts with third parties. However, LexisNexis shall complete and deliver to the State all work, services, and goods not cancelled by the termination notice and may incur obligations as are necessary to do so within the Contract's terms. At the sole discretion of the State, LexisNexis shall assign to the State all of Contractor's right, title, and interest under such terminated orders or subcontracts. Upon termination, LexisNexis shall take timely, reasonable, and necessary action to protect and preserve property in the possession of LexisNexis in which the State has an interest. All materials owned by the State in the possession of LexisNexis shall be immediately returned to the State. All work product, at the option of the State, shall be delivered by LexisNexis to the State and shall become the State's property.

2. The State shall reimburse LexisNexis only for accepted performance up to the date of termination. If, after termination by the State, it is determined that LexisNexis was not in breach or that LexisNexis's action or inaction was excusable, such termination shall be treated as a termination in the public interest and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be the same as if this Contract had been terminated in the public interest, as described herein.

3. Notwithstanding any other remedial action by the State, LexisNexis shall remain liable to the State for any damages sustained by the State by virtue of any breach under this Contract by LexisNexis and the State may withhold any payment to LexisNexis for the purpose of mitigating the State's damages, until such time as the exact amount of damages due to the State from LexisNexis is determined. The State may withhold any amount that may be due LexisNexis as the State deems necessary to protect the State against loss, including loss as a result of outstanding liens, claims of former lien holders, or for the excess costs incurred in procuring similar goods or services. LexisNexis shall be liable for excess costs incurred by the State in procuring from third parties replacement work, services, or substitute goods as cover.

B. Early Termination in the Public Interest. The State is entering into this Contract for the purpose of carrying out the public policy of the State of Colorado, as determined by its Governor, General Assembly, and the Courts. If this Contract ceases to further the public policy of the State, the State, in its sole discretion, may terminate this Contract in whole or in part. Exercise by the State of this right shall not constitute a breach of the State’s obligations hereunder. This subsection shall not apply to a termination of this Contract by the State for cause or breach by LexisNexis, which shall be governed by subsection A of this section XIV or as otherwise specifically provided for herein.

1. The state shall notify LexisNexis of such termination in accordance with section XVI (Notices and Representatives). The notice shall specify the effective date of the termination and whether it affects all or a portion of this Contract.

2. Upon receipt of a termination notice, LexisNexis shall be subject to and comply with the same obligations and rights set forth in subsection A. 1. of this section XIV.

3. If the State terminates this Contract pursuant to this subsection B., then LexisNexis shall be paid an amount that bears the same ratio to the total reimbursement under this Contract as LexisNexis's obligations that were satisfactorily performed bear to the total obligations set forth in this Contract, less payments previously made. Additionally, if this Contract is less than sixty percent completed, the State may reimburse LexisNexis for a portion of actual out-of-pocket expenses (not otherwise reimbursed under this Contract) incurred by LexisNexis that are directly attributable to the uncompleted portion of LexisNexis’s obligations hereunder, provided that the sum of any and all reimbursement shall not exceed the maximum amount payable to LexisNexis hereunder.
C. Remedies Not Involving Termination. The State, in its sole discretion, may exercise one or more of the following remedies in addition to other remedies available to it:

1. Suspend LexisNexis's performance with respect to all or any portion of this Contract pending necessary corrective action as specified by the State without entitling LexisNexis to an adjustment in price or cost or performance schedule. LexisNexis shall promptly cease performance and incurring costs in accordance with the State's directive and the State shall not be liable for costs incurred by LexisNexis after the suspension of performance under this provision.

2. Withhold payment to LexisNexis until corrections in LexisNexis's performance are satisfactorily made and completed.

3. Deny payment for those obligations not performed that, due to LexisNexis's actions or inactions, cannot be performed or, if performed, would be of no value to the State, provided that any denial of payment shall be reasonably related to the value to the State of the obligations not performed.

4. Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, the State may demand immediate removal of any of LexisNexis's employees, agents, or subcontractors whom the State deems incompetent, careless, insubordinate, unsuitable, or otherwise unacceptable, or whose continued relation to this Contract is deemed to be contrary to the public interest or the State's best interests.

5. If LexisNexis infringes on a patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property right while performing its obligations under this Contract, LexisNexis shall, at the State's option:

   a. Obtain for the State or LexisNexis the right to use such products and services;

   b. Replace any goods, services, or other products involved with non-infringing products or modify them so that they become non-infringing; or

   c. If neither of the foregoing alternatives is reasonably available, remove any infringing goods, services, or products and refund the price paid therefor to the State.
XV. ADDITIONAL REMEDY PROVISIONS

A. Time Is of the Essence. The Parties agree that time is of the essence in this Contract, that a failure by LexisNexis to meet any of the publication deadlines provided for in section VII.D. causes substantial damage to the State, that the amount of such damage is difficult to determine exactly, and that, therefore, the specification of liquidated damages is appropriate.

B. Liquidated Damages. The Parties agree that the following liquidated damages apply to any failure by LexisNexis to meet any of the publication deadlines provided for in section VII.D.:

1. For any delay for which the Committee has not extended the deadline pursuant to section VII.A. not exceeding three days in meeting a deadline with regard to the Session Laws and Red Book, a two percent discount on the price established in section VIII.A.1. For each further delay of a period of up to three days, a successive discount of two percent from the previously discounted price shall apply. In no event, however, shall the total discount imposed under this paragraph exceed ten percent. Any discounts imposed pursuant to this paragraph do not diminish the amount that LexisNexis may charge the public for the Session Laws and Red Book.

2. For any delay for which the Committee has not extended the deadline pursuant to section VII.A. not exceeding three days in meeting a deadline with regard to the Statutes, a one percent discount on the price established in section VIII.B.1. For each further delay of a period of up to three days, a successive discount of one percent from the previously discounted price shall apply. In no event, however, shall the total discount imposed under this paragraph exceed ten percent.

C. Cumulative. All liquidated damages specified in this article are cumulative with any other remedies the State may have and apply only to LexisNexis's failure to comply with publication deadlines and not to any other breach of or failure to comply with this Contract.

C. Governmental Immunity. No term or condition of this Contract shall be construed or interpreted as a waiver, express or implied, of any of the immunities, rights, benefits, protections, or other provisions, of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", 24-10-101 et seq., C.R.S., or the federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. 1346(b) and 2671 et seq., as applicable now or hereafter amended.

D. Independent Contractor. Contractor shall perform its duties hereunder as an independent contractor and not as an employee. Neither Contractor nor any agent or employee of Contractor shall be deemed to be an agent or employee of the State. Contractor and its employees and agents are not entitled to unemployment insurance or workers' compensation benefits through the State and the State shall not pay for or otherwise provide such coverage for Contractor or any of its agents or employees. Any provision rendered null and void by the operation of this provision shall not invalidate the remainder of this Contract, to the extent capable of execution.

If the State determines that Contractor is in violation of this provision, the State may exercise any remedy available at law or in equity or under this Contract, including without limitation, immediate termination of this Contract and any remedy consistent with federal copyright laws or applicable licensing restrictions.

K. Public Contracts for Services [§8-17.5-101, C.R.S.]. Contractor certifies, warrants, and agrees that it does not knowingly employ or contract with an illegal alien who will perform work under this Contract and will confirm the employment eligibility of all employees who are newly hired for employment in the United States to perform work under this Contract, through participation in the E-Verify Program or the State program established pursuant to section 8-17.5-102(5)(c), C.R.S. Contractor shall not knowingly employ or contract with an illegal alien to perform work under this Contract or enter into a contract with a subcontractor that fails to certify to Contractor that the subcontractor shall not knowingly employ or contract with an illegal alien to perform work under this Contract. Contractor (a) Shall not use E-Verify Program or State program procedures to undertake pre-employment screening of job applicants while this Contract is being performed, (b) shall notify the subcontractor and the contracting State agency within three days if Contractor has actual knowledge that a subcontractor is employing or contracting with an illegal alien for work under this Contract; (c) shall terminate the subcontract if a subcontractor does not stop employing or contracting with the illegal alien within three days of receiving the notice, and (d) shall comply with reasonable requests made in the course of an investigation, undertaken pursuant to section 8-17.5-102(5), C.R.S., by the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment. of premiums has been terminated by the division under the authority of section 8-76-110 (4) (e) or (4) (f).

(V) and (VI) Repealed.

(b) (I) Effective October 1, 1983, each employer's rate for the twelve months commencing January 1 of any calendar year shall be determined on the basis of his record prior to the computation date for such year. The computation date for any calendar year shall be July 1 of the year next preceding such calendar year.

(II) (A) The total of all an employer's premiums paid on his or her own behalf on or before thirty-one days immediately after the computation date and the total benefits that were chargeable to the employer's account and were paid before the computation date, with respect to weeks, or any established payroll period of unemployment, beginning prior to the computation date, shall be used to compute his or her premium rate for the ensuing calendar year in accordance with the table set forth in either sub-subparagraph (B) or (C) of this subparagraph (II); except that, for rate years 1983 and thereafter, the maximum rate for negative excess employers shall be .054 as shown in the table set forth in sub-subparagraph (C) of this subparagraph (II). "Percent of excess", in both said tables, means the percentage resulting from dividing the excess of premiums paid over benefits charged by the average chargeable payroll, computed to the nearest one percent. The word "to" in the column headings, which make reference to fund balances (resources available for benefits), means "not including".

Exhibit A-6
(III) Only those wages paid for covered employment that occurred prior to the computation date and reported to the division on or before thirty-one days immediately following the computation date will be used to determine the experience rate effective for the next calendar year.

(IV) Whenever an employer subject to the provisions of articles 70 to 82 of this title acquires, prior to the computation date and pursuant to section 8-76-104, all or a segregable portion of the organization, trade, and business or substantially all of the assets of an employer who was subject to the provisions of articles 70 to 82 of this title at the time of such acquisition, and such successor submitted in writing that he met the conditions set forth in section 8-76-104, a total or partial transfer of the experience rating record of the predecessor employer shall be made as provided in section 8-76-104. No merger of such accounts for experience rating purposes will be made for the rate effective the next calendar year unless such information is submitted to the division on or before sixty days following the computation date.

(V) When the fund level on July 1 of any year reaches one and six-tenths percent of the total wages, the director of the division of employment and training shall recommend to legislative council a proposed premium rate decrease.

(c) If the federal unemployment tax rate is reduced below three percent, the maximum rate listed in the table shall not exceed ninety percent of the reduced federal unemployment tax rate.

(d) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, any employer, at any time prior to March 15 of any year, may pay voluntary premiums in addition to the premiums and surcharges provided under articles 70 to 82 of this title. Voluntary premiums shall be credited to the employer’s account and be used in determining the employer’s rate for the current calendar year and subsequent calendar years; except that, if an employer is delinquent in the payment of any premiums or surcharges due, the voluntary premium payments shall be reduced by the total amount of delinquent premiums and surcharges before such computation is made. No voluntary premiums paid pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall be refunded or applied to future premium liability.

(e) As used in this section, for the purpose of computing the premium rate of any employer, “annual payroll” means the total amount of wages for employment paid by an employer during the twelve-month period ending June 30. “Average chargeable payroll” means the average of the chargeable payrolls for the last three fiscal years ending June 30. For any employer who has not reported payrolls to the division for thirty-six consecutive months ending June 30, the division shall compute the average chargeable payroll by dividing the total chargeable payrolls of the employer during the three fiscal years ending June 30 by the total months during which such wages were paid and multiplying the amount so determined by twelve.

The left-hand column of this table lists the section number of a statute as it appeared in C.R.S. 63. The right-hand column lists the section number as it appeared in the original version of C.R.S. 73 except as noted below.

For statutes that were repealed, moved, or changed subsequent to placement in the original version of C.R.S. 73 through 1991, a note to that effect has been placed following the specific statute entry. For example, the entry "3-4-1......24-30-402" followed by the note "Subject Matter Changed. L. 81" indicates that section 3-4-1 from C.R.S. 63 became section 24-30-402 in C.R.S. 73, but the subject matter was changed in 1981. Similarly, the entry "3-4-7......24-30-408" followed by "Subject Matter Similar to 24-30-401. L. 81" indicates that section 3-4-7 from C.R.S. 63 became 24-30-408 in C.R.S. 73, but similar provisions are now contained in section 24-30-401 as the result of amendments made in 1981.

If an entire body of law was rewritten resulting in the relocation of subject matter or repealed since the original publication of C.R.S. 73 through 1991, a note to that effect will precede the entries for those provisions.

REMEDIAL WRITS AND CONTEMPT

Rule 106. Forms of Writs Abolished

(a) Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, Quo Warranto, Certiorari, Prohibition, Scire Facias and Other Remedial Writs in the District Court. Special forms of pleadings and writs in habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition, scire facias, and proceedings for the issuance of other remedial writs, as hereinafter known, are hereby abolished in the district court. Any relief provided hereunder shall not be available in the superior or county courts. In the following cases relief may be obtained in the district court by appropriate action under the practice prescribed in the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure:

(1) Where any person not being committed or detained for any criminal or supposed criminal matter is illegally confined or restrained of his liberty;

(2) Where the relief sought is to compel a lower judicial body, governmental body, corporation, board, officer or person to perform an act which the law specially enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station, or to compel the admission of a party to the use and enjoyment of a right or office to which he is entitled, and from which he is unlawfully precluded by such lower judicial body, governmental body, corporation, board, officer, or person. The judgment shall include any damages sustained;

(3) When any person usurps, intrudes into, or unlawfully holds or exercises any office or franchise, the district attorney of the proper district may, and, when directed by the governor so to do, shall bring an action against such person in the name of the people of the state, but if the district attorney declines so to do, it may be brought upon the relation and complaint of any person. The Rule heretofore existing requiring leave of court to institute such proceedings is hereby abolished. When such an action is brought against a defendant alleged to have usurped, intruded into, or who allegedly unlawfully holds or exercises any public office, civil or military, or any franchise it shall be given precedence over other civil actions except similar actions previously commenced. The judgment may determine the rightful holder of the office or franchise;

(4) Where any governmental body or officer or any lower judicial body exercising judicial or quasi-judicial functions has exceeded its jurisdiction or abused its discretion, and there is no plain, speedy and adequate remedy otherwise provided by law:

(I) Review shall be limited to a determination of whether the body or officer has exceeded its jurisdiction or abused its discretion, based on the evidence in the record before the defendant body or officer.

(II) Review pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be commenced by the filing of a complaint. An answer or other responsive pleading shall then be filed in accordance with the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure.

(III) If the complaint is accompanied by a motion and proposed order requiring certification of a record, the court shall order the defendant body or officer to file with the clerk on a specified date, the record or such portion or transcript thereof as is identified in the order, together with a certificate of authenticity. The date for filing the record shall be after the date upon which an answer to the complaint must be filed.

(IV) Within twenty days after the date of receipt of an order requiring certification of a record, a defendant may file with the clerk a statement designating portions of the record not set forth in the order which it desires to place before the court. The cost of preparing the record shall be advanced by the plaintiff, except that the court may, on objection by the plaintiff, order a defendant to advance payment for the costs of preparing such portion of the record designated by the defendant as the court shall determine is unessential to a complete understanding of the controversy; and upon a failure to comply with such order,
