

Case No. 251. ALLISON v. ALEXANDER.

{1 Cranch, C. C. 237.}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

June Term, 1805.

ACTION—ELECTION.

The plaintiff, having proceeded both at law and in equity, must make his election.

On motion by Mr. Simms, for the defendant, THE COURT ordered the plaintiff to make his election, he having proceeded at law and in chancery, for money due from defendant's testator to plaintiff on partnership account.

¹ [Reported by Hon. William Cranch, Chief Judge.]