

Case No. 973.

BARCLAY v. GOVERS.

{1 Cranch, C. C. 147.}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

Dec. Term, 1803.

GUARDIAN AD LITEM—APPOINTMENT ON MOTION.

The court, on motion, will appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant defendant.

{See Rhineland v. Sanford, Case No. 11,739.}

At law. Case for goods sold.

On motion of Mr. E. B. Caldwell, alleging that the defendant was an infant, James Thompson was appointed guardian to plead for the defendant FITZHUGH, Circuit Judge, absent.

¹ [Reported by Hon. William Cranch, Chief Judge.]