

Case No. 1,114.

BAUGH v. NOLAND.

{2 Cranch, C. C. 2.}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

June Term, 1810.

BAIL—INSOLVENT.

The defendant had been discharged under the insolvent law of Maryland, in 1809, since the cause of action. The bail produced a copy of the record of discharge, and an exoneretur was allowed.
