

Case No. 3,470.

THE CUMBERLAND.

District Court, D. Massachusetts.

1815.

SALVAGE—OWNER OF RESCUING VESSEL—COMPENSATION.

[Cited in The Henry Ewbank, Case No. 6,376, and in a note to The Waterloo, Id. 17,257, to the point that, in cases of extraordinary merit or extraordinary peril to the rescuing ship, the owner of the latter should be allowed a moiety of the salvage.]