

Case No. 6,763.                      HOWARD v. UNITED STATES.

{2 Cranch, C. C. 259.}<sup>1</sup>

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

Oct. Term, 1821.

APPEAL—PROFANE SWEARING.

Appeal [by Gustavus Howard] from the judgment of a justice of the peace, imposing a fine, for profane swearing in his presence.

THE COURT dismissed the appeal, saying that no appeal lies in such a case (CRANCH, Chief Judge, doubting).
