

Case No. 7,285.

JENNY v. CRASE.

{1 Cranch, C. C. 443.}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

July Term, 1807.

EQUITY PRACTICE—INJUNCTION—SLAVE.

An injunction to prevent a person from taking away a colored woman, who has sued for her freedom in this court, will not be granted upon a mere statement of the plaintiff's apprehension.

Bill for injunction to prevent the defendant {George Crase} from taking away the plaintiff {a negress} out of this county, until he appears and answers a suit at law to try the right of freedom. Injunction refused. Defendant not a resident of the county of Alexandria, nor of the District of Columbia.

The plaintiff merely states her apprehension.
