

Case No. 8,624.

LYLES v. ALEXANDRIA.

[1 Cranch, C. C. 361.]¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

Nov. Term, 1806.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS—REFUSAL OF JUDGE TO SIGN.

The court will not sign a bill of exceptions, which states that it contains all the evidence in the cause, unless, &c.

THE COURT (DUCKETT, Circuit Judge, absent,) refused to sign a bill of exceptions stating that it contained all the evidence offered in the cause; that fact not appearing to be agreed by the parties, and the court not being satisfied that the whole evidence was stated.
