

Case No. 8,663.

[1 Wkly. Notes Cas. 16.]

IN RE MCBRIDE.

District Court, E. D. Pennsylvania.

Oct. 1, 1874.

BANKRUPTCY PRACTICE—REGISTER'S FEES—NO ASSETS IN HANDS OF ASSIGNEE.

The register reported to the court that he had received no payment for his services, except the deposit fee of $50, no assets having come into the hands of the assignee, and petitioned the court to make an order upon the intervening and petitioning creditors for the payment of his fees, as provided in the 47th section of the bankrupt act [of 1867 (14 Stat 540)].

THE COURT thereupon ordered the petition to be set down for a hearing, and notice to be given to the intervening and petitioning creditors, as well as to the bankrupt.
