

MEMORANDUM.

{1 Cranch, C. C. 253.}<sup>1</sup>

Circuit Court, District of Columbia. Sept. Term, 1805.

Mr. Mason's causes, which were non prossed at the former session of this term, were reinstated upon his stating that he was confined to his bed by sickness in the country, and unable to attend and to write.

<sup>1</sup> [Reported by Hon. William Cranch, Chief Judge.]

This volume of American Law was transcribed for use on the Internet

through a contribution from Google. 