

Case No. 15,034.*UNITED STATES v. EIGHT HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE BOXES OF SUGAR.

{11 Int. Rev. Rec. 63.}

District Court, D. Louisiana.

1870.

CUSTOMS DUTIES—FALSE INVOICES.

In this case the sugar was libelled as having been imported under false invoices, with a view to defraud the revenue. The case was given to the jury February 5th, and a verdict was rendered in favor of the government.

P. H. Morgan, U. S. Dist. Atty., and Hudson & Fearn, for the United States.

Billings & Hughes, J. L. Tissot, and W. R. Whittaker, for importers.

This volume of American Law was transcribed for use on the Internet

through a contribution from Google. 