

Case No. 15,108.

UNITED STATES v. FIVE BARRELS OF WHISKEY.

{11 Int. Rev. Rec. 11.}

District Court, S. D. New York.

1869.

INTERNAL REVENUE—FORFEITURE—CONDEMNATION BY DEFAULT.

BLATCHFORD, District Judge. Returns of process having been made, and no claimants appearing for any of the following described property, it was condemned by default: Five barrels of whiskey, found at No. 548 West Seventeenth street; one still, etc., found in a saloon at No. 145 Bowery; 47 half boxes manufactured tobacco, found at No. 80 Front street; 25 boxes of snuff in bottles, found at No. 104 Pearl street; 2,000 cigars, found in Liberty street; 15 boxes cigars, found at No. 148 Water street; and 12 boxes cigars, found at No. 75 Fulton street.

This volume of American Law was transcribed for use on the Internet

through a contribution from Google. 