

UNITED STATES v. GEE.

{2 Cranch, C. C. 163.}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia. April Term, 1819.

JURY—PEREMPTORY CHALLENGE.

Upon an indictment for larceny, in Alexandria, D. C, the prisoner is entitled to a peremptory challenge.

Indictment [against Thomas Gee] for stealing the money of James H. Caldwell.

THE COURT decided that the prisoner was entitled to a peremptory challenge. Laws Va. Now. 13, 1792, p. 103, § 8.

¹ [Reported by Hon William Cranch, Chief Judge.]

This volume of American Law was transcribed for use on the Internet

through a contribution from Google. 