

Case No. 16,199. UNITED STATES v. ROUNSAVEL.
[2 Cranch, C. C. 133.]<sup>1</sup>

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

April Term, 1817.

GAMING—INFORMATION.

An information will not lie upon a presentment of a grand jury for public gambling, contrary to the Virginia statute of December 8, 1792 (chapter 96, § 5, p. 175).

Rule to show cause why an information should not be filed upon the presentment of the grand jury for playing at vingt et un at a tavern, contrary to the act of assembly.

UNITED STATES v. ROUNSAVEL.

BY THE COURT. The statute has prescribed the mode of prosecution, and no other can be sustained. See U. S. v. Willis [Case No. 16,728], at November term, 1808, and U. S. v. Simms (in supreme court of the United States) 1 Cranch [5 U. S.] 252.

Rule discharged.
