

Case No. 16,944.

THE VINCENNES.

District Court, D. Maine.

1851.

SHIPPING—TITLE TO VESSELS—DISAGREEMENT AMONG MOIETY OWNERS.

In this case there were three part owners of the vessel, one owning a moiety, and the other two a quarter each. The owner of the moiety was in possession, and was ship's husband; but the parties disagreed as to the voyage, and, on application of the two part owners of the one moiety, the vessel was ordered to be sold.
