

Case No. 17,029.

WADE v. MATHEWS.

Circuit Court, N. D. New York.

June 30, 1851.

COURT RULES—COSTS—FOLLOWING STATE COURTS—EFFECT OF CHANGES.

[Cited in Law, Jur. 278, to the point that the federal courts, by equity rule No., 25, adopted the fee bill of the highest court of any state as such fee bill existed in 1842; and that changes and alterations made since 1842 in any of such fee bills by changes of the law or practice of any such state did not apply to or govern the practice in the federal courts.]

[Nowhere reported; opinion not now accessible.]
