

Case No. 17,506.

WHETCROFT v. DUNLOP.

{1 Cranch, C. C. 5}¹

Circuit Court, District of Columbia.

April Term., 1801.

VACATING JUDGMENT—SPECIAL DEMURRER.

A special demurrer will not be admitted to set aside an office judgment.

{This was an action by Whetcroft's administrator against John Dunlop.}

THE COURT refused to admit a special demurrer to the declaration to be filed on setting aside the office judgment. The cause of demurrer assigned was the want of profert of the letters of administration.
