

HART, JR., AND OTHERS V. THAYER.

Circuit Court, S. D. New York.

June, 1884.

Points in dispute decided in preceding case of Thayer v. Hart.

In Equity.

Frederic H. Betts and C. Wyllys Betts, for complainants.

Josiah P. Fitch, for defendant.

COXE, J. This action involves the same patents examined in Thayer v. Hart, ante, 693. Infringement is admitted, and the question of prior invention alone is involved. The result reached in that action disposes of this also.

There should be a decree for an injunction and an account, with costs.

This volume of American Law was transcribed for use on the Internet
through a contribution from Lessig's Tweeps.