

THE SWALLOW.²
ALLEN AND ANOTHER v. SEVEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIVE TONS OF COAL.

Circuit Court, E. D. New York.

June 17, 1886.

DEMURRAGE—DESIGNATION OF WHARF—IMPROPER PLACE.

The decision of the district court in the same case (27 Fed. Rep. 316) affirmed.

Admiralty Appeal.

Wilcox, Adams & Macklin, for appellee, Mary E. Allen.

Souther & Steadman, for appellants.

BLATCHFORD, Justice. I have reached; in this case, the same conclusions with the district judge, and for the reasons set forth by him. 27 Fed. Rep. 316. A decree will be entered to the same purport as that made by the district court on the fifth of April, 1886, with costs to the libelants in this court.

² Reported by R. D. & Wyllys Benedict, Esqs., of the New York bar.