Public.Resource.Org responds to Copyright Alliance's motion by clarifying the incomplete representation of Public.Resource.Org's position with respect to the motion. Public.Resource.Org's pre-motion correspondence asked Copyright Alliance to include in its motion the response quoted below, but regrettably both the original motion and the amended motion did not include the complete response:

1. Public.Resource.Org strenuously objects to any change in the deadlines that the Court has set, because it and its amici have made firm plans based on the schedule.
2. Public.Resource.Org consents to the filing of an amicus brief by Copyright Alliance.
3. Public.Resource.Org takes no position regarding a 2-week extension of Copyright Alliance's deadline for an amicus brief and will neither consent to [] that extension nor oppose a motion regarding such an extension so long as any timing change for that brief has no effect on the deadlines for other amici or on the other dates in the schedule and so long as Copyright Alliance provides this response by Public.Resource.Org in its motion.

Public.Resource.Org filed its Circuit Rule 26.1 disclosure on June 3, 2022.
