Re: ASTM et al. v. Public.Resource.Org - Document Production

Kathleen,

This is in response to your letter of October 8, 2014. ASHRAE intends to make an additional production of documents by the end of next week, and to complete its previously agreed production by the end of October. Before searching for and producing those documents that ASHRAE, in its response to your motion to compel discovery, indicated a willingness to produce, or to consider producing, we would like to set a time to meet and confer, either in person in San Francisco or by telephone. We are generally available the week of October 20; please let us know what time and day would work for you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Andrew Zee
