

Any law or regulation must be considered in the public domain and freely publishable in any form. This must include all regulations which come into effect through Incorporation by Reference.