

I strongly feel the law should be freely available to the public. It should be our right, as citizens, to have law freely available so that we have a better understanding of the laws that we must obey.

Regards,
Kennedy Thao