Dear Mr. Miller,

Have you had an opportunity to consider my email of July 21? If you're interested, I'd very much like to discuss incorporation by reference issues with you. My schedule is flexible next week, with the exception of 2-3:30 pm on Wednesday, July 3, so just let me know when would be convenient for you.

Thank you,
Emily

Subject: ACUS Incorporation by Reference Project

Dear Mr. Miller,

I'm an attorney advisor with the Administrative Conference of the United States, an independent, non-regulatory federal agency that studies issues in administrative law and procedure and makes recommendations for improvements. We've undertaken a project on incorporation by reference in federal regulation that may be of interest to you. A general description of the scope of the project is available on our website:

<http://www.acus.gov/research/the-conference-current-projects/incorporation-by-reference/>

Much of my research for the project consists of interviews with interested parties, including agency personnel and representatives of standard development organizations. Mary Donaldson, the ICSP Secretariat, provided me with your contact information and suggested that you would be a great person to include in my research.

Might you have some time to get together and discuss the issues with me? I would be happy to come to your offices at your convenience and would anticipate taking no more than an hour of your time. As of now, my schedule is flexible most of next week, except for the mornings of Wednesday,

July 27 and Thursday, July 28. If you're interested, please just let me know what time would be most convenient for you. And if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 202.480.2086 or ebremer@acus.gov

I look forward to speaking with you.

Thank you,

Emily Schleicher Bremer | Attorney Advisor
