Mr. Cade,

Great, thank you! My first week of August is fairly open, with the exception, alas, of those mornings. I could meet with you in the afternoon on either the 3rd or 4th. Perhaps 2 pm on Wednesday, the 3rd, if that works for you?

Best,
Emily

I would be happy to meet and discuss the issue with you. That said I am in Canada next week at a meeting. What does the next week look like for you? I am wide open on the 3rd or 4th. Come early and I will take you to lunch.

Dear Mr. Cade,

I'm an attorney advisor with the Administrative Conference of the United States, an independent, non-regulatory federal agency that studies issues in administrative law and procedure and makes recommendations for improvements. We've undertaken a project on incorporation by reference in federal regulation that may be of interest to you. A general description of the scope of the project is available on our website:

<http://www.acus.gov/research/the-conference-current-projects/incorporation-by-reference/>

Much of my research for the project consists of interviews with interested parties, including agency personnel and representatives of standard development organizations. Mary Donaldson, the ICSP Secretariat, provided me with your contact information and suggested that you would be a great person to include in my research.

Might you have some time to get together and discuss the issues with me? I would be happy to come to your offices at your convenience and would anticipate taking no more than an hour of your time. As of now, my schedule is flexible most of next week, except for the mornings of Wednesday, July 27 and Thursday, July 28. If you're interested, please just let me know what time would be most convenient for you. And if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 202.480.2086 or ebremer@acus.gov

I look forward to speaking with you.

Thank you,

Emily Schleicher Bremer | Attorney Advisor
