I know, it's incredible!

Let's have lunch. Next week? I can do any day except for Monday or Friday.

Cheers,

Wow! "ASME is providing free read-only access to Section XII of the Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code"

Wasn't sure I would ever read THAT statement... Thanks for sharing.

I have been in Bulgarian mountains the last 10 days. Great trip but bad to non-existent communications.

I would love to hear about Brussels. Time for lunch?

Scott,

This might interest you: <http://acus.gov/newsroom/administrative-fix-blog/continued-implementation-recommendation-2011-5-incorporation>

Also, I am so sorry, because I know I owe you emails! I got positively buried in February (partially by a truly fascinating trip to Brussels with other US regulators to learn about the EU) and have yet to dig my way out. I promise you will be hearing from again on Monday. In the meantime, have a great weekend!

Best,
