Meghan,

Thank you for your interest! We haven't set a date yet for the workshop, but I expect it will be held in April or May. I'll add you to my list to be sure that you're notified when we set the date.

All the best,
Emily

Hi Emily,

It was interesting to hear the perspective of small business and industry on the IBR issue at the OSHA roundtable last week. You mentioned that there were plans to do a workshop more closely at the access issue. I was wondering if you knew when that might be.

Sincerely,
Meghan Housewright
