Scott,

My schedule is free both of those days, and I'd love to meet Ms. Griffin, so just let me know what time would be most convenient.

Emily

Was good to see you, too, Scott!

That looks like a great plan to me, and just what we discussed. I'll do a little research and thinking over the holiday week about who would make sense to invite as the copyright expert and to serve on the panel (e) below. Then perhaps we can touch base the week of July 9 to begin sorting out logistics?

Try to stay cool!

Best,
Emily

Dear Emily,

Good seeing you during the last gasp of fresh air until ?

- 1) How about something like this?
  - a. Intros by Paul V and Joe B
  - b. Keynote by recognized copyright expert
  - c. Panel of Hill folks on how they view the public policy issues on IBR playing out in Congress,
  - d. Panel of SDO folks on copyright, & stewardship, and what is being done to make standards reasonable available
  - e. Panel of policymakers, reasonable academics, legal experts.
  - f. Q&A and audience dialogue led by Paul V.

- 2) This could be a  $\frac{3}{4}$  day event (10am to 3pm) [Timing certainly flexible]. Neutral venue (perhaps GW University) with lunch served (ANSI covers). Looking for dates in mid-November.
