The U.S. Chamber of Commerce ("Chamber") and Administrative Conference of the United States ("Conference") are pleased to co-sponsor this event as a means of providing information to individuals interested in learning more about international regulatory cooperation and incorporation by reference. The Chamber and the Conference are pleased to co-host this workshop that addresses issues relevant to the missions of both organizations. We are fortunate to have a number of distinguished speakers from both government agencies and the private sector. As always, it should be understood that the remarks of our speakers represent their views or those of their respective institutions and not necessarily those of the Chamber or the Conference. The Chamber asks legislative employees to consult with their House and Senate ethics office, as appropriate, to determine whether there would be any prohibition on their attendance at this event. The Chamber also asks executive branch employees to obtain written permission to attend this event from their designated agency ethics officer and to send a copy of the permission to grc@uschamber.com.
