Subject: Reminder: Arbitration of RAND disputes - ANSI Legal Issues Forum - 10/1/13
Date: Monday, September 16, 2013 12:41:36 PM

To: Past participants, ANSI Legal Issues Forum

Dear colleagues,

As past participants in the American National Standards Institute's annual Legal Issues Forum, I am pleased to share more information about this year's event and encourage your registration. Registration closes on September 20, so be sure to grab your spot right away!

Entitled Arbitration of RAND Disputes, this year's Legal Issues Forum will be held on Tuesday, October 1, from 1 to 5 p.m. As part of ANSI's World Standards Week 2013 series of events, the Forum will be held at the Newseum in Washington, DC.

The event will examine the incorporation of essential patents into standards, including reasonable and non-discriminatory (RAND) terms, arbitration, injunction, dispute resolution, and more. A keynote address will be delivered by Oliver Smoot, former chairman of the ANSI Board of Directors and former president of the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). An interactive panel session will follow, to be moderated by Professor Jorge Contreras of American University.
