Mia,

We have been working on this and going round and round with contracts – please see the attached email that we have been involved with.

Subject: four publishing contracts

I just spoke to Jonette and she asked if we could reach out to the publishers and find out what is the estimated value for each contract. Even though the state does not profit from the sale or pays the publisher for the publication; the estimate is needed to show estimated value of each contract.

Please include the contract numbers for her reference.
