I note that in your AIE request you requested that the Standards be provided to you in electronic form.

ISO and CEN-CENELEC play a fundamental role in the developments of the worldwide standards that form the basis of the nationally adopted standards provided by NSAI. The NSAI is a licensee of these worldwide standards and must adhere to terms imposed on the NSAI in respect of the dissemination of the Standards.

On the basis of the obligations imposed on the NSAI, as licensee, I can confirm that the Standards requested are accessible from NSAI in the following manner:

- 1) Register of Standards – Available on a register of standards which can be viewed on the NSAI webstore free of charge – see <https://shop.standards.ie/>;
- 2) Review at NSAI Premises - the full contents of Standards can be viewed free of charge in the Library of Standards held at NSAI Headquarters in Swift Square, Santry, Dublin;
- 3) Electronic Access - the Standards (including any standards that have been superseded) can be purchased (in paper form or electronic download) through the NSAI standards webstore (<https://shop.standards.ie/>). For ease of access, please see below a table which provides direct links to each of the Standards requested above:

I am therefore granting access to the 10 records in electronic form. In accordance with Article 7(3) of the AIE Regulations I am granting access to the 10 standards by directing you to the NSAI webstore where the information is available. The reason these records are being provided to you in this way is that the information requested is already available for downloading by members of the public.

Should you wish to view the Standards in the NSAI standards library free of charge please email standardsviewing@nsai.ie and we will arrange a mutually convenient date and time for viewing in Swift Square, Santry.

Under Article 11 of the AIE Regulations you have a right to request an internal review of this decision. An internal review involves a complete reconsideration of the matter by a member of the staff of the NSAI, unconnected with the original decision, of the same or higher rank than the original decision-maker, who may affirm, vary or annul the original decision.

If you wish to request an internal review, you can do so by writing to the NSAI's AIE Officer at the following email address - aie@nsai.ie. In your correspondence please refer to this decision, quoting the AIE reference number above. This request must be made within one month of the date of receipt of this decision. The decision of an internal review will be communicated to you within one month of receipt of your request for an internal review.

Please contact me at 01 807 3986 or anne.clarke@nsai.ie if I can assist you in any way relating to your request.

Yours sincerely,

anne clarke
