I've been doing this long enough that if all we had was the short version, that's just the way it goes. But, it was so gratifying to see the longer piece.

I'm glad you found the long version. We always put out a really short version of a story first and then generally follow with a longer version. I always worry that some people will just see the short version and think we didn't really care about the topic.

Thanks again for getting back to me so quickly yesterday. I look forward to seeing how this unfolds.
