Hi Carl,

My name is Melissa Sachs and I'm a senior legal writer with Thomson Reuters where I write the Westlaw Journal Computer & Internet.

I wanted to write about Code Revision Commission et al. v. Public.Resource.Org Inc., No. 1:15-cv-2594, complaint filed (N.D. Ga., Atlanta Div. July 21, 2015). I saw an answer was due Aug. 14.

I wanted to know if you had any comments about the suit or an update about the response filing.

Because I'm not sure what's going on with the case, I don't really have a deadline for the article – but if you could respond to me within a day or two, I'd like to write a story about this ASAP (today, tomorrow, Thursday).

Just let me know either way! And, let me know if there is someone else who I should contact.

Thank you very much!

Best,

mjs
