

From: Carl Malamud carl@media.org
Subject: Re: Official Code of Georgia
Date: October 1, 2015 at 3:04 PM
To: Steve Gottlieb sgottlieb@atlantalegalaid.org

No I haven't, but I will definitely reach out to her. That's a great suggestion. The right to speak the law without a license is what is at stake here, and First Amendment groups are great.

Thanks much for thinking about it though ... hope to meet you if I get to Atlanta. I'm really impressed with what the Atlanta Legal Aid Society is doing, would love to learn more.

If you have an email address for Holly, that would be very useful.

On Oct 1, 2015, at 2:58 PM, Steve Gottlieb <sgottlieb@atlantalegalaid.org> wrote:

Carl. I checked, and we think this is not really our issue. Have you talked to Holly Manheimer at the Georgia First Amendment Foundation?

-----Original Message-----

From: Carl Malamud [<mailto:carl@media.org>]
Sent: Thursday, October 01, 2015 1:56 PM
To: Steve Gottlieb
Subject: Re: Official Code of Georgia

Thanks for taking my call! I'm attaching a recent article from the Daily Report.

Best regards,

Carl

On Oct 1, 2015, at 10:41 AM, Steve Gottlieb <sgottlieb@atlantalegalaid.org> wrote:

I would be happy to talk to you, but it might be more productive for you to contact Rachel Spears of the Pro Bono Partnership, which provides lawyers to represent non-profits. She can be reached at 404-407-5059

-----Original Message-----

From: Carl Malamud [<mailto:carl@media.org>]
Sent: Thursday, October 01, 2015 12:57 PM
To: sgottlieb_alas@yahoo.com
Subject: Official Code of Georgia

Dear Mr. Gottlieb -

I run a nonprofit group called Public.Resource.Org that has been recently sued by the State of Georgia for posting the Official Code of Georgia Annotated.

Might you have a few minutes for a phone call with me?

Best regards,

Carl Malamud

