Dear Mr Malamud,

It has come to the attention of the Commonwealth of Australia, as represented by the Department of Industry, Innovation, Science, Research and Tertiary Education (DIISRTE), trading as the Australian Building Codes Board (ABCB), that you have made unauthorised use of the National Construction Code (Work), by publishing a scanned copy of the Work and allowing for free download of the Work.

This work has been published at the following URL addresses:

<https://law.resource.org/pub/au/manifest.au.html>
<http://archive.org/details/au.ncc.2.2012>

The ABCB is the owner of the copyright for this Work and our permission was neither asked nor granted to reproduce our Work. Your unauthorised version of the Work therefore constitutes infringement of our rights under s31 of the Copyright Act 1968 (the Act). If you do not cease and desist from using our Work we may pursue legal action under the Act. In the instance that we do this, we may be entitled to an injunction against your continued infringement, as well as to recover damages from you for the loss we have suffered as a result of your infringing conduct.

In the circumstances, we demand that you immediately:

1. Remove all infringing content and notify us in writing that you have done so;
2. Immediately cease the use and distribution of our copyrighted material;
3. Undertake in writing to desist from using any of our copyrighted Work in future without prior written authority from us.

We await to hear from you by no later than close of business on 1 March 2013.

Your acknowledgement of this letter and your stated undertakings should be sent to the above address or alternatively you may email Marisa.Muchow@abcb.gov.au.

If you have any questions about this letter or believe that you have received this letter in error please contact us at the above address or by email at abcb.office@abcb.gov.au.
