Dear Internet Archive Copyright Agent:

I am writing this letter on behalf of the International Code Council, Inc. ("ICC"), in response to the discovery of copyrighted works from ICC located at archive.org. Specifically, we note the unauthorized reproduction or use therein of images and content from the following works in which ICC owns copyright rights:

Title: International Plumbing Code
Link: <https://ia600401.us.archive.org/19/items/gov.law.icc.ipc.2006/icc.ipc.2006.pdf>

This material is infringing and should be removed or access to it disabled.

The reproduction or use of the copyrighted material described above on the allegedly infringing web pages is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law. The information in this notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, I declare that I am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Please disable access to all such unauthorized ICC copyrighted materials and cease display and distribution immediately, via all means, of all copyrighted ICC materials. Your failure to respond to this matter as requested and/or continued or further unauthorized reproduction or use of the ICC's copyrighted materials may compel ICC to pursue more formal channels to protect its rights.

Please note that nothing contained in this letter nor any act or omission to act by ICC, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates is intended or should be deemed to be a waiver or modification of any rights or remedies which ICC, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates may have, and all such rights are expressly reserved.

I look forward to your prompt response to this matter.

Sincerely,
